STATE POLITICS.

is so well rewarded as on the farm, and there is no field where laborer's intelligent direction so much as in agricultural pursuits.

The Rockport Democrat urges Col. Grey for governor.

The Decatur Democrat booms for Tilden and Hendricks for 1880.

The Ligonier Banner thinks Tilden will be the democratic nominee for president in 1880.

The Evansville Courier is very savage on Tilden and seems to prefer Grant to the Gramercy Park man.

Judge Holman will undoubtedly be the democratic nominee for congress in the fourth district next year.

The first choice of the Laporte Argus for president is Hendricks; its second choice Tilden.

Judge New and Judge Bicknell are prominently mentioned in connection with the democratic gubernatorial nomination next year.

The Columbia City Post is for Hendricks for president, first, last and all the time.

The Kendallville News thinks Tilden should be next president.

Messrs. Shanklin, Fleming and Manson will probably be renominated by the democrats for secretary, treasurer and auditor of state next year without opposition.

Hon. A. L. Mitchell, of Elkhart county, is favorably mentioned for the succession to Judge Biddle on the supreme bench.

The New Albany Ledger-Standard wants it to be Tilden and Hendricks again.

McCabe will probably contest Orth's seat in congress after all. He is said to have a strong case.

The Portland Sun favors Frank Landers for governor.

The Frankfort Crescent thinks the Grant boom was started too early.

The Lafayette Dispatch calls it a double-headed boom, and a tour junket, referring to Grant and Hayes, who are now bunning around the country.

The Rockport Democrat takes its contemporaries to task for abusing Tilden, and says they'll yet eat crow.

About three-fourths of our exchanges have no politics, or else don't know what they are.

The Bluffton Banner sees consolidation of power, life offices, unrestrained functions and titles of nobility in the continued rule of the republican party.

Zach Chandler speaks at Toledo today.

The Ohio election takes place two weeks from to-morrow.

Senator Pendleton addressed an immense meeting at Van Wert, on Saturday. He discussed national banks, the silver question and the use of the military at the polls. The effort was a most brilliant one.

FOREIGN FLASHES.

The Prague firm of Rieltar has been declared bankrupt.

Cabul is in a state of anarchy. The gates of the city are closed.

Cholera is prevailing among the English troops in Afghanistan.

Germany will probably participate in the international monetary congress.

A new Russian loan of $150,000,000 will be offered in London for railway construction.

The whole English force will shortly be concentrated in Larzou valley for a rapid advance on Cabul.

The amerc visited Gen. Baker's camp, Saturday, with a suite of fifty-five persons and an escort of 200 men.

Russian newspapers are making bold attacks upon the government, and have been officially cautioned to desist.

Senor Canovar del Castillo will probably become president of the Spanish ministry before the cortex meets.

It is said that Lord Salisbury has pledged England to endeavor to secure the unconditional cession of Jamaica to Greece.

The Birmingham Bolt and Nut Manufacturing Company offer to make arrangements with creditors to prevent liquidation.

The person who was recently arrested while attempting to enter the Sultan's palace at Constantinople, has been secretly assassinated.

It is said that extensive preparations are being made for further negotiations in matters relating to trade and means of communication between Germany and Austria.

War is imminent between Turkey and Greece. It is thought that Austria is obstructing all efforts towards an understanding with a view to occupying Macedonia in the event of hostilities.

Notices of 10 percent reduction of wages were posted Saturday at nearly all earthenware and chinaware factories in Stafford, Eng., pottery. The men are determined to resist this reduction which will affect 80,000 persons.

It is expected Cabul will be entered on the fifth of October. Resistance is doubtful as the rebels lack leaders, food, and arms. A force sent to assist Lord Roberts and party have been fired on. A doctor was severely wounded. A force sent to assist Lord Roberts and party have been fired on. A doctor was severely wounded. A force sent to assist Lord Roberts and party have been fired on. A doctor was severely wounded.

The Liverpool Post says that the consequence of the prevalence of foot and mouth disease among 1,800 head

GRANT AND HAYES.

Stout visited the San Francisco Stock Exchange Saturday and was received with immense applause by a large crowd. He afterwards witnessed the drill of the Underwriters' fire patrol. In the evening he attended the camp fire of the veterans at the pavilion where there was an immense crowd. There was considerable drunkenness and more or less disorder. On Sunday Grant dined with Flood, the bonanza king. At the San Luis Sunday Kearney said that he had made an unsuccessful attempt to interview Grant, who refused to see him. He left the workmen to draw their own conclusions.

President Hayes and party had a reception at the state house in Topeka (Kan.) on Saturday, and were received with enthusiasm. In the evening there was a torchlight procession and illumination. They passed Sunday with Gen. Pope at Fort Leavenworth.

Church Troubles in St. Louis.

After an animated discussion the St. Louis Baptist Association, by a vote of 27 to 17, sustained the charges preferred by the Park Avenue Church against the Second Baptist Church. Fellowship was withdrawn from the said congregation and its pastor, Rev. Mr. Boyd. The specifications briefly are, that Dr. Boyd lectured, a lot of taught, and believed that all men will be ultimately saved; that sects are ordained of God and needful to the various views of mankind; that a few may be saved without believing in Jesus; that close communion is only an inference drawn from one passage of scripture; that the Baptist denomination is too rigid in its views of communion; that it is not a prerequisite to communion, only an order for its reception; and that a man has a right to picture God according to his needs, and has a right to go to his God in any manner he chooses. The irregularity and practice of said church is specified to be in having held a joint service with the Jewish congregation of Rabbi Sonnenschein, whose temple they were occupying after their own church building was burned, and in Dr. Boyd, on certain occasions, having invited Dr. Elliott, a Unitarian minister, to partake of the Lord's supper, which invitation was accepted. The Fourth Baptist Church, Rev. J. V. Schofield, pastor, has withdrawn from the Baptist Association, the withdrawal being the result of the action of the association in the case of the Second Church. The Fourth Church is understood to object to the action of the association on the ground that the charges against the Second Church were not brought in proper manner; that they were frivolous, not sustained by evidence, and that they were really aimed at Dr. Boyd, with the desire to get rid of him, and not at the church.

Up in a Balloon.

Prof. John Wise made an ascension in his large balloon, Pathfinder, from Lindell Park, St. Louis, Saturday evening. He says the ascension was solely in the interests of science, particularly meteorology. There was a risk breeze at the time the fastenings were cut loose, which carried the balloon in a northeasterly direction for perhaps a couple of miles, at an elevation from 1,200 to 1,500 feet. It then turned due east and sailed away out of sight. The professor expects to enter what he calls the permanent eastern wind current at an elevation of 1,500 to 2,000 feet which he desired to keep in if possible and make his observations from, and to effect this more surely his ballast consisted of only a three-quarter inch rope, 1,800 feet long, which trailed from the balloon. George Bartier, teller of the St. Louis National Bank, who has made three ascensions and takes much interest in the subject of aerial navigation, accompanied Mr. Wise.

Yellow Fever Notes.

Thirteen new cases, three white and ten colored, were reported at Memphis Saturday and Sunday. Six deaths were reported: Alfred B. Watkins, Geo. Jenne, Richard Lawrence, Thos. A. Dobbs, Jerome Weststrand and Dolly Rogers (colored.)

Little Rock has established a rigid quarantine against trains, steamboats, cars, vehicles and every means of conveyance coming from Memphis.

Fire.

A fire at Dover, N. H., destroyed a portion of Law's block. Loss, $28,000; insurance, $26,000.

Later estimates make the loss on the Deadwood fire $1,500,000 to $2,000,000. The city will be rebuilt at once in a substantial manner.

Five large stores at Bolton, Tex. burned. Loss, $100,000; insured.

Columbia City Items.

The barn of John Cooper, two and one-half miles northwest of Columbia, was struck by lightning, Saturday morning, and, with its contents, was entirely destroyed. No insurance. Loss about $1,500.

Thursday night, Deputy Sheriff George Washington Smith arrested Noah Fager, of Colamer, for selling liquor without a license. Fager was placed in jail. Bail was refused, although Eli Brown and John White agreed to go surety. Saturday night Fager was released on a writ of habeas corpus.

Good for Babies.

We are pleased to say that our baby was permanently cured of a serious protracted irregularity of the bowels by the use of Hop Bitters by its mother, which at the same time restored her to perfect health and strength. The parents, University ave., Rochester, N. Y. See another column.

STATE NEWS.

Warsaw has a cooking club.

The state fair begins to-day at Indianapolis.

Luther Benson is not dead after all. He was only drunk.

The presidential circus will be on exhibition at the state fair on Thursday.

The Indianapolis published a most creditable daily during the fair at Warsaw.

The Clinton county fair was a decided success. So was the etc., etc., etc., and so forth.

Mrs. Dieble, of Lafayette, aged seventy-six, fell on Friday night, fracturing her arm and injuring her back.

John McMahon was buried in a gravel pit near Huntington on Friday, receiving injuries from which he has since died.

Mrs. E. J. Jamison, of Peru, displayed a towel at the Miami county fair which was 115 years old. It had never been used in a printing office.

The Line City News (Huntington) and the Rochester Sentinel are having a little tilt now, and from the looks of things they want to fight and spill gore.

At the soldiers' reunion at Danville on Friday, during a sham battle, Charles Hillebrand, a veteran gunner, had his left forearm blown off by a premature discharge.

The Lafayette Courier tells of a young lady in high life in that city, trying to shuffle off this mortal coil, all for love. No names are given. Laudanum and stomach pump.

Rochester wants an artesian well, just the same as Fort Wayne did, and work on the same has been stopped, for precisely the same reason as Fort Wayne let up—lack of funds. Sinking fund.

The fight between the Wabash Courier and the Plaindealer still continues. Yet notwithstanding all this racket, the Courier folks manage to get out a "bang up" good paper about once a week.

Friday morning, as men in the employ of the city of Huntington were at work in a pit, an embankment caved in on the workmen, burying John Mahon and George Elrod. Mahon sustained internal injuries which resulted in death yesterday afternoon. Elrod is lying in a critical condition.

The following appointments have been made by the directors of the northern prison: Jas. Murdock, of Lafayette, warden; — Baker, of Boone, deputy warden; Maj. Burke, of Lafayette, steward; Dr. J. E. McNulty, of Jefferson, Clinton county, physician. An appointment was made for moral instruction.

The Dales, father and son, for shooting Alexander Yoder, near South Bend last week, appeared for trial last Saturday, when the case was dismissed, no one appearing against them. It is now evident that the shooting was accidental, as the boy, who it was claimed did the shooting, is only eleven years old and never fired a gun himself in his life.

OHIO NEWS.

Heavy frosts are reported from Ravenna, doing much damage to corn and fruit.

The Akron Club defeated the Western Reserves of Hudson at base ball Saturday by a score of 16 to 14.

A young son of Lawrence Redding was accidentally drowned in the creek near Ravenna Sunday evening.

George Arter's residence, two miles from Crestline, was burglarized of $250 and a lot of clothing Saturday night.

A party of city officials from Detroit and Grand Rapids were entertained at Cleveland in grand style Saturday by the officials of that city.

Anthony Campaign, while gathering hickory nuts near Massillon Sunday afternoon, fell fifty feet to the ground and was instantly killed. He leaves a wife and one child.

Phillip Rhine, employed at Suter's stone quarry, near Massillon, was fatally injured Saturday. He was engaged in hoisting stone with a derrick when the crank slipped from his hands, striking him on the neck and tearing his windpipe open.

The fair at Youngstown concluded Saturday, having been a complete success. The 3:30 race was won by Elsie Gaffie, Sleepy Tom 2nd, Duster 3rd, Black Diamond 4th. Pacing race was won by Shaker Boy, Billy King 2nd, Arthur Boy 3rd, Billy all the way, Brother Jonathan 1st, Black Diamond 2nd, Duster 3rd and Tom Medley 4th.

The Eastern Ohio M. E. Conference met at Akron on Saturday. The conference decided that it had no jurisdiction in the case of E. H. Prosser. J. H. Ekey was changed from effective to supernumerary relation. J. Williams, George W. Clark, S. Burt, W. H. Locke and J. Tribby were appointed a committee on conference boundaries. The committee on members re-

THE "SENTINEL."

The Port Wayne SENTINEL, one of the ablest and most enterprising of exchanges, has procured a double cylinder Hoe press, capable of printing 5,000 papers, complete, per hour. That is sufficient to print the entire weekly edition of almost any other democratic paper in the state in about five minutes.

[Delphos Herald.]

The Port Wayne DAILY SENTINEL has 100 subscribers in Delphos. It's a newsy, bright little daily.

[Adams County Union.]

E. L. Cottrill, general circulator of the Port Wayne SENTINEL, was in the city Tuesday, looking after the subscription list of that paper, which has been greatly improved and is worthy of being considered what it is—one of the best dailies in northern Indiana. It is now circulating largely among the business men of Decatur, there being about 100 copies received here every morning.

We Challenge the World.

What we believe we have evidence to prove, that Shiloh's Consumption Cure is decidedly the best Lung Medicine made, inasmuch as it will cure a common chronic cough in half the time and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, and all other Lung troubles. News from Memphis.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Jan. 9, 1879.

During the late epidemic of yellow fever in this city, I received a lot of Shiloh's Natural Mineral Water, and I must say that I was more pleased with it, than with any other water of similar character. I HAVE EVER USED.

G. B. THORNTON, M. D.

In cases of fever the Shiloh's Natural Mineral Water has always been found to be accompanied with perfect success. For sale by the leading druggists.

THE CITY.

The "Octoroon."

The Younger libel case again.

Country schools opened to-day.

Criminal court in session again to-day.

The City Band did not play yesterday.

The canal in the east end, is full of dogs.

Langard put on the robe of office to-day.

Nutting parties were the rage yesterday.

The churches were all running yesterday.

Mayor Jones, of Antwerp, is still very low.

The Masonic Temple begins to loom skywards.

A three days' walking match is on the tapis.

Saturday was "Yom Kippur," a Jewish fast day.

The concerts at the park have been discontinued.

J. Frost, spent several days in the city last week.

The SENTINEL's circulation is now over 4,000 daily.

The public schools resumed operations this morning.

Gotthold's Octoroon Company are at the Mayer House.

The Kendallville News man attended the fair last week.

The ghost show pulled up stakes and left on Saturday.

Wiggins has pulled up stakes and gone to Indianapolis.

Yesterday would have been a good day for the mustang race.

A large number of people visited the fair grounds yesterday.

Col. Robertson was at the Grand Hotel, Indianapolis, Friday.

A pedestrian match will shortly take place at the Academy.

The "Octoroon" will be presented at the Academy this evening.

W. D. Page and family will take in the Chicago exposition this week.

John Allgeier, jr., is visiting his brother William at Grand Rapids.

The fair is over. Now let us have peace on this line if it takes all summer. Timothy 16, 10.

The "Octoroon" to-night will be the only entertainment at the Academy this week.

The heirs of Israel P. Young have been paid $3,082.45 by the Masonic Mutual Benefit Society.

H. H. Meyer, a prominent cigar dealer of Dayton, O., is in the city looking after his interest.

Mr. Eli Greensfelder, of Logansport, is in the city visiting his parents and relatives at 95 Ewing street.

John Custer, of Hastings, Mich., a noted temperance lecturer, is in the city the guest of Dr. L. F. Harris.

Old's new saw mill in White's addition, is in running order now and plenty of logs on hand to work on.

Rae Chittenden will return from the east this week, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Harriet Chittenden.

John Vordermark, Frank Gibson, Jacob Rhine, O. T. Thomas and others will attend the reunion of war prisoners at Toledo this week.

The many friends of E. L. Bean, of the St. Cloud Hotel, Philadelphia, will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from a very dangerous illness.

The small boy with his cousins and — was at the fair grounds yesterday stirring things around with a stick in the vain hope that he would find a quarter.

Luther Benson, it seems, was only dead drunk, and not drunk "for keeps" this other day, as reported by the state news. At any rate he drinks whisky very naturally for a corpse.

If you have found or lost anything, want to buy or sell anything, want a situation or want to employ help, want to rent a house or have a house to rent, advertise in the half cent column of the SENTINEL and reach 15,000 readers every day.

Mr. James Garry, a well known farmer of the Western Reserve, who, with his wife, has been taking in the fair and visiting his sister, Mrs. T. Martin, of 559 Hanna street, whom he has not seen for eighteen years, has gone to Michigan to visit his brother and other relatives.

The men employed in some of our railroad shops and private factories are quite indignant because they were given no opportunity to attend the fair last week, and some of them were discharged for "laying off" for that purpose. They say that it is a poor way to encourage the fair.

The Citizens Band started to Rochester, Thursday morning, with high hopes of winning the prize offered in the tournament. About 150 Peruvians accompanied the boys. Peru Republican. Yes, the City Band started about the same time with the same expectation, and didn't get disappointed quite as badly as the Citizens Band either.

The Southern Indiana Press Association, which was in session at Evansville last week, listened to a very interesting address on journalism by George O. Cochrane, formerly editor of the Fort Wayne Gazette and now Mr. Watters' lieutenant on the Louisville Courier-Journal. Mr. Cochrane is one of the best newspaper men in the country, and his address was a brilliant one.

Antwerp had another lightning sensation last week caused by a lightning rod man, who wanted to light the weary breast, or words to that effect, of a married lady in the place. Her husband found it out, and so did the L. J. M., who left the town so quick it hurt one's eyes to see him. The husband went home, mashed up the furniture, made up with his wife, bought new furniture and all well again.

Our old friend, E. B. Smith, who was our foreman while we were running the Fort Wayne Gazette, gave us a pleasant call last Friday. He is now chief of police of that city, and proves to be just as efficient there as he was in the Gazette composing room. Long may he flourish. — Western Republican. You bet he'll flourish long if he flourishes at all. He is six and a half feet long now and "still a growin'."

Capt. H. McKinnie, of this city, and Samuel Keefe, formerly of Fort Wayne, have leased the Grand Central Hotel of New York, and purpose making it the equal of any hotel in the metropolis. Capt. McKinnie as landlord of the railroad eating house in this city, the Gault House in Chicago and the celebrated Manhattan Beach hotel, has acquired a reputation as one of the very best hotel men in the United States. He and Mr. Keefe make a strong team, and under their management the Grand Central will doubtless be one of the very best hotels in the world. Success to them.

Engine No. 145 has gone into the Pittsburgh shops for repair.

John Elgin, a former employee of the Wabash, died at St. Louis Thursday.

The Wabash is putting in another side-track at Antwerp for the benefit of the elevator.

Ex-Secretary McCulloch has been elected a director of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

The proposition to erect an exposition building at Swinney Park meets with general favor.

The Wabash elevators at Toledo handled 2,000 bushels of grain in the last week in August.

Pittsburgh engine No. 223 is now being run by Wm. Turner. The regular engineer, Mr. A. W. B. Burton, is recuperating.

Passenger Conductor James Gill,

of the Wabash, has obtained leave of absence to go after his family, who have been off on a visit during the summer.

The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago road is having several fine bridges built in the Keystone shops at Pittsburgh.

The Wabash earned $141,758 during the second week in September, against $128,665 the corresponding week of last year, an increase of $13,093, or 10.2 percent.

D. H. Herr, the Wabash baggage agent at Toledo, says that travel on the Wabash is now heavier than he has ever known it before, and he has been with the road for eighteen years.

The Wabash is advertising the Springfield, Ill., fair very extensively, and the company expect to do a big business in taking passengers to the fair, which is said to be one of the most attractive in the west.

Delphos Herald: The new Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad depot at this place is about ready for the inside finish, the brick work being almost completed. It is one of the handsomest buildings of the kind to be found on any road in this country. The people of Delphos have cause to thank the company for this much needed improvement.

One point in connection with the alliance of the Grand Trunk and consolidated Wabash, which has scarcely received the attention which its importance demands, is that it will have an important influence in building up Portland, the eastern winter terminus of the Grand Trunk. In shipping circles it is considered probable that one or more new lines of steamships will be put on at that port during the coming winter.

AMUSEMENTS.

"UNDER THE GASLIGHT." The "Oofy Goo!" Combination played at the Academy on Saturday night. They played "Under the Gas Light" but what they did that for no one can find out. There are lots of plays lots better, from Blindman's bluff down to draw poker.

A good audience assembled to hear and witness the play and if that audience was good when it went away it could be good under any circumstances. "Oofy Goo!" himself in his dialect is almost faultless. It is perfectly natural, while his acting was fair, but for the balance little can be said in commendation, as the wild enthusiasm of even a Fort Wayne audience evinced. The play is highly sensational and the playing was highly commendable, which was only surpassed by the erratic freaks of the orchestra, among whom there seemed to be a determined misunderstanding as to whose turn it was to play or what selection was to be played. The matter was compromised by each player starting off on his own hook in a sort of a "go as you please" which was brought to a stop by the leader rapping on his stand with his bow, when every player stopped as soon as he could. The object of the above is to convey the idea that the music was execrable, and that a few more repetitions of last week's performances and Schult's orchestra will lose the reputation which it was fast gaining, and they themselves, must inevitably ascend the hollow cylinder around which the woodbine doth love to twine.

"THE OCTOROON."

This beautiful drama of Southern life will be presented at the Academy to-night by the celebrated Gotthold combination, the same that played Uncle Tom's Cabin so splendidly here last season. The company is one of the best in the country. One of the special features is the Dominion Vocalists, this celebrated colored singers, who are alone well worth the price of admission. The play will be produced with special scenery, and a rare musical and dramatic treat may be expected. At Grand Rapids last week the company played to immense audiences, hundreds of people being turned away. The highest compliment of the author, The Eagle of that city says:

It was standing room only, and not much notice was given to the performance of the "Octoroon" by the Gotthold combination. It seemed like an old time audience to look across the hall and notice the sea of faces up stairs and down gallery, dress circle, parquette, orchestra, chairs in the aisles, and people standing up against the wall. Stimulated by the presence of so great an audience, the play was presented in an admirable manner. Among the marked general features were the magnificent scenery, the superb playing, the scenery, etc., which were superb; the spirit and unity of the plot and the huge number of stars, and the fact that the play was so ably directed by Mrs. Florence Moore. This lady performs at all times the part of the concluding, pale-talented artist, and her rendering is not to be surpassed. The play is a masterpiece of the highest order of the author. The stirring scenes in which he is the central figure, give an enjoyable life to the whole play.

One of the charming features of the entertainment is the songs rendered by the Old Dominion Colored Vocalists. Their music surpasses that usually heard on such occasions.

The general admission is only 50 cents.

To the Business Men of Fort Wayne, Ind.: I desire through the columns of the SENTINEL to offer a tribute of thanks to the business and professional citizens of Fort Wayne for the kindness and respect shown to myself and assistant teachers during my normal music school, which closed its session on last Saturday evening. Never before have I had the pleasure of holding a similar school in a place that is kindly and interested in the progress of the human race. The business men of Fort Wayne during the past year have been the most generous and liberal in their support of the school. I am, therefore, most grateful to you for the kindness and respect shown to myself and assistant teachers during my normal music school, which closed its session on last Saturday evening. The men employed in some of our railroad shops and private factories are quite indignant because they were given no opportunity to attend the fair last week, and some of them were discharged for "laying off" for that purpose. They say that it is a poor way to encourage the fair.

The Citizens Band started to Rochester, Thursday morning, with high hopes of winning the prize offered in the tournament. About 150 Peruvians accompanied the boys.—Peru Republican.

Yes, the City Band started about the same time with the same expectation, and didn't get disappointed quite as badly as the Citizens Band either.

The Southern Indiana Press Association, which was in session at Evansville last week, listened to a very interesting address on journalism by George C. Cochrane, formerly editor of the Fort Wayne Gazette and now Mr. Watterson's lieutenant on the Louisville Courier-Journal. Mr. Cochrane is one of the best newspaper men in the country, and his address was a brilliant one.

Antwerp had another lightning sensation last week caused by a lightning rod man, who wanted to soothe the weary breast, or words to that effect, of a married lady in the place. Her husband found it out, and so did the l. r. m., who left the town so quick it hurt one's eyes to see him. The husband went home, mashed up the furniture, made up with his wife, bought new furniture and alls well, bought new furniture and alls well, bought new furniture and alls well.

Our old friend, E. B. Smith, who was our foreman while we were running the Fort Wayne Gazette, gave us a pleasant call last Friday. He is now chief of police of that city, and proves to be just as efficient there as he was in the Gazette composing room. Long may he flourish.—Warsaw Republican.

You bet he'll flourish long if he flourishes at all. He is six and a half feet long now and "still a growin'."

Capt. H. McKinnis, of this city, and Samuel Keefe, formerly of Fort Wayne, have leased the Grand Central Hotel of New York, and purpose making it the equal of any hotel in the metropolis. Capt. McKinnis as landlord of the railroad eating house in this city, the Gault House in Chicago and the celebrated Manhattan Beach hotel, has acquired a reputation as one of the very best hotel men in the United States. He and Mr. Keefe make a strong team, and under their management the Grand Central will doubtless be one of the very best hotels in the world. Success to them.

THE RAILROADS.

Engine No. 145 has gone into the Pittsburgh shops for repair.

John Elgin, a former employee of the Wabash, died at St. Louis Thursday.

The Wabash is putting in another side-track at Antwerp for the benefit of the elevator.

Ex-Secretary McCulloch has been elected a director of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

The proposition to erect an exposition building at Swinney Park meets with general favor.

The Wabash elevators at Toledo handled 2,000 bushels of grain in the last week in August.

Pittsburgh engine No. 223 is now being run by Wm. Turner. The regular engineer, Mr. A. W. B. Burton, is rusticated.

Passenger Conductor James Gill,

of the Wabash, has obtained leave of absence to go after his family, who have been off on a visit during the summer.

The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago road is having several fine bridges built in the Keystone shops at Pittsburgh.

The Wabash earned $141,758 during the second week in September, against $128,665 the corresponding week of last year, an increase of $13,093, or 10.2 percent.

D. H. Herr, the Wabash baggage agent at Toledo, says that travel on the Wabash is now heavier than he has ever known it before, and he has been with the road for eighteen years.

The Wabash is advertising the Springfield, Ill., fair very extensively, and the company expect to do a big business in taking passengers to the fair, which is said to be one of the most attractive in the west.

Delphos Herald: The new Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad depot at this place is about ready for the inside finish, the brick work being almost completed. It is one of the handsomest buildings of the kind to be found on any road in this country. The people of Delphos have cause to thank the company for this much needed improvement.

One point in connection with the alliance of the Grand Trunk and consolidated Wabash, which has scarcely received the attention which its importance demands, is that it will have an important influence in building up Portland, the eastern winter terminus of the Grand Trunk. In shipping circles it is considered probable that one or more new lines of steamships will be put on at that port during the coming winter.

AMUSEMENTS.

"UNDER THE GASLIGHT."

The "Oofty Goofy" Combination played at the Academy on Saturday night. They played "Under the Gas Light" but what they did that for no one can find out. There are lots of plays lots better, from Blindmans buff down to draw poker.

A good audience assembled to hear and witness the play and if that audience was good when it went away it could be good under any circumstances. "Oofty Goofy" himself in his dialect is almost faultless. It is perfectly natural, while his acting was fair, but for the balance little can be said in commendation of the wild enthusiasm of even a Fort Wayne audience evinced. The play is highly sensational and the playing was highly damnable, which was only surpassed by the erratic freaks of the orchestra, among whom there seemed to be a determined misunderstanding as to whose turn it was to play or what selection was to be played. The music was compromised by each player starting off on his own hook in a sort of a "go as you please" which was brought to a stop by the leader rapping on his stand with his bow, when every player stopped as soon as he could. The object of the above is to convey the idea that the music was execrable, and that a few more repetitions of last week's performances and Schultz's orchestra will lose the reputation which it has just gained, and they themselves must inevitably become the hollow cylinder around which the woodbine doth love to twine.

"THE OCTOROON."

This beautiful drama of Southern life will be presented at the Academy to-night by the celebrated Gothold combination, the same that played Uncle Tom's Cabin so splendidly here last season. The company is one of the best in the country. One of the special features is the Dominion Vocalists, the celebrated colored singers, who are alone well worth the price of admission. The play will be produced with special scenery, and a rare musical and dramatic treat may be expected. At Grand Rapids last week the company played to immense audiences, and hundreds of people being turned away. The Eagle of that city says:

It was standing room only, and not much of that last night at the Opera House, at the performance of the "Octoroon" by the Gothold combination. It seemed like an old time audience to look down the house and see the seats of every row filled, and the gallery, dress circle, parquette, orchestra chairs, chairs in the boxes, and every standing place against the wall. Stimulated by the presence of so great an audience, the play was presented in an admirable manner. Among the marked general features of the mounting and general make up of the play, the scenery, etc., which were superb; the spirit and unity of the plot and the acting of the strong parts, represented by strong players. All seemed to have something to do. The leading female person, who was the title character, "Zoe, the Octoroon," so ably portrayed by Miss Florence Elmore, was a lady of rare talent, and her rendering no doubt realized the highest ideal of the author.

As anticipated, one of the magnificent portrayals of a wild, rough, though quaint and good-natured character, was that of Mr. J. Gothold as Salem Scudder. The stirring scenes in which he is the central figure, give an enjoyable life to the whole play.

One of the charming features of the entertainment is the songs rendered by the Old Dominion Colored Vocalists. Their music surpasses that which usually hears on such occasions.

The general admission is only 50 cents.

A Card.

To the Business Men of Larwill, Ind.:

I desire through the columns of the SENTINEL to offer a tribute of thanks to the business and professional citizens of Larwill for the kindness and respect shown to myself and assistant teachers during my normal music school, which closed its session last Saturday evening. Never before have I had the pleasure of holding a similar school in a place that as kindly an interest has been manifested and put in actual practice as was done by the business men of Larwill during the past week.

At the close of the school, a concert was given at Larwill, Ind., at 7:30 p. m., at which time the following program was presented:

FAMILIAR FACES.

Who Were Gathered Around the Mayor's Desk This Morning.

Bummers and Bawds, Prostitutes and Pimps, Houdens and Harlots.

John Godfrey was in hard luck again on Saturday night. Too much fire water got into John and he couldn't keep on top of the matter. He went under right in front of Strodel's saloon. Capt. Smith waited him to the stinkery, and this morning he wandered around to police court, where owing to his regular attendance, the mayor said he would make him a special rate and would fix it at $3.00.

Ed. Vogeler just got back from Roanoke yesterday morning and inside of eight hours, he was dead drunk, broke, and fired out of a saloon, arrested and in the calaboose. The mayor asked him when he was going back.

"Right away, I go back."

"Right off."

"No."

"Yes."

"No."

"Three dollars."

Chas. O'Neil was the next victim. On Saturday night he wanted to put a head on Officer Doyle because he had arrested him for stealing the boots out of Mannix shop. Doyle was on his beat at the time and didn't have time to get a head put on him, but as Charlie seemed fixed in his purpose, Doyle just tapped him over the eye, and Charlie went down to see what he had dropped. When he got up he went right back and found that he had dropped his body. His fine was fixed at $1.

Josephine DeVitt is a gay and festive dancin', who promenade the streets, on Saturday night, with an African gentleman with a cigar in her mouth, a valise in one hand and a six shooter in the other. She offered to shoot a nest of outcous of the first man that said beans, and made it so generally pleasant for the folks around the south depot that she had to be taken care of.

At the court this morning she called Capt. Smith a liar with ingenious frankness, and in answer to where she got the valise and revolver she informed him that it was her own business.

"Well, it's my business to send you to jail for 30 days," said the mayor, and Josephine sat on one side.

Miss Annie Freutel, Miss Annie Meyer and David Eggeman were called in quick succession by the marshal, but neither appearing a $30 bank note fell on the mayor's desk from the hand of Officer Humbrecht, who stated that the trio had been gallivanting around in a highly improper manner. This money was deposited and the circus went on. The case of Chas. Bailey and Jacob De Hart were continued.

On the Pennsylvania road there are a couple of engines in active service at this moment that have reached the unprecedented record of over 190,000 miles without once needing repairs. These are the standard engines used on the road.

George Sappington's Funeral.

Our readers will recollect the sad accident that happened in St. Joseph township, Saturday morning, whereby George Sappington lost his life. George and his brother William were out hunting, the latter having his rifle on his shoulder with the hammer raised. When about to change the position of the gun it was discharged, the ball penetrating the brain of George. He lingered for a few hours in an insensible condition. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Lowry, of the New Haven Methodist precinct. The remains were deposited in the beautiful cemetery of the Odd Fellows at New Haven. The funeral was the largest ever attended in that portion of the county. George Sappington's age was 24 years, 6 months, and 1 day at the time of his death. He was a young man of more than ordinary ability and intelligence. He was born in this county and was the son of Jacob Sappington, of St. Joe township.

A Dastardly Assault.

Yesterday Wm. Ford, an ex-constable, was returning home with his little girl, he encountered at the gate leading to his house in Kiser's alley, a party of men. He politely asked them to step aside and let them pass. He opened the gate and let his child pass in, and as he was following, one of the party slammed the gate on his heels, saying: "Get in there, you son of a b—h." He looked around to see who it was, when one of the men, a plumber in the employ of Robt. Ogden, struck him and knocked him down. They then left. Ford has filed an affidavit for assault and battery, but at this writing the party has not been found. Ford says he doesn't know what was the cause of the assault as he never met the party before to his knowledge.

The Wabash boys are cackling over a big achievement yesterday. Engine 42, Ed Shell at the throttle, hauled sixty cars loaded with grain from this city to Toledo, making the distance in five hours and forty minutes, including all stops. The aggregate weight of the load was — pounds. To-day the same engine pulled 101 cars, 97 empties and 4 loads, from Toledo to Fort Wayne. These are pronounced the biggest "pulls" on record.

Trustees McCulloch and Manning accompanied by Engineer Cook, made a tour of inspection of the Chicago water works last week, examining the engines and works at Hyde Park and on the west side. The engines used are the Holly, Nott's and the Quintard. They do not express themselves on any one engine and will shortly leave to inspect other engines but do not wish their visit heralded, as they want to find the engines in their every day trim, and not fixed up to suit the occasion.

An Outrage.

J. E. McElhatrick went into the "Globe" to-day to see a party whom he expected to meet there. On going out he was accosted by an attaché of the place who asked him to pay his bill. McElhatrick protested that he had neither ordered nor eaten any thing in the place, whereupon he was seized and "fired out." McElhatrick at once filed an affidavit against his assailant for assault and battery. He says he has $1,000 to protect his rights, and he is determined to do it as far as it goes. The "Globe" is a very fine establishment, but at the same time some of the employees are decidedly fresh, and at times anything but gentlemanly. Mr. Geismar will doubtless bounce them at once.

The City School.

To the Editor of the SENTINEL:

I read in some of the city papers that the Clay school was getting along well without a principal, and therefore that the principals of the other buildings might be easily dispensed with and so much money saved. But it's all a mistake; the Clay school is not getting along at all well, as every teacher insists on playing principal and much confusion, etc., is the consequence. I think that the experiment is not a success, and that the sooner the Clay school has a principal the better it will be.

In his meanderings to-day, our worthy reporter happened to drop in to the popular tailoring parlors of A. Foster, No. 80 Calhoun street. Here the reporter's optics were met on all sides by a bewilderment of fancy fall suitings. It would be impossible to convey to our readers any idea of the endless variety of fancy piece goods found here. Suffice it to say that A. Foster has the finest stock in the city and enjoys a deserved popularity on account of his matchless call. We would advise our readers to call and see him.

FAMILIAR FACES.

Who Were Gathered Around the Mayor's Desk This Morning.

Bummers and Bawds, Prostitutes and Pimps, Houdens and Harlots.

John Godfrey was in hard luck again on Saturday night. Too much fire water got into John and he couldn't keep on his feet. He went under right in front of Strode's saloon. Capt. Smith waited him to the stinkery, and this morning he wandered around to police court, where owing to his regular attendance, the mayor said he would make him a special rate and would fix it at $3.00.

Ed. Vogeler just got back from Roanoke yesterday morning and inside of eight hours, he was dead drunk, broke, dead fired out of a saloon, arrested and in the calaboose. The mayor asked him when he was going back.

"Right away, I go back."

"Yes, right off."

"Right off over the canal?"

"No."

"No."

"No."

"Three dollars."

Chas. O'Neil was the next victim. On Saturday night he wanted to put a head on Officer Doyle because he had arrested him for stealing the boots out of Munnix shop. Doyle was on his beat at the time and didn't have time to get a head put on him, but as Charlie seemed fixed in his purpose, Doyle just tapped him over the eye, and Charlie went down to see what he had dropped. When he got up he went right back and found that he had dropped his body. His fine was fixed at $1.

Josephine DeWitt is a gay and festive dame, who promenaded the streets, on Saturday night, with an African gentleman with a cigar in her mouth, a valise in one hand and a six shooter in the other. She offered to shoot a nest of cats out of the first man that said beans, and made it so generally pleasant for the folks around the south depot, that she had had to be taken care of.

At the court this morning she called Capt. Smith a liar with ingenious frankness, and in answer to where she got the valise and revolver she informed him that it was her own business.

"Well, its my business to send you to jail for 30 days," said the mayor, and Josephine sat on one side.

Miss Annie Frentzel, Miss Annie Meyer and David Eggeman were called in quick succession by the marshal, but neither appearing a $300 bank note fell on the mayor's desk from the hand of Officer Humbrecht, who stated that the trio had been gallant around in a highly improper manner. The money was defaulted and the circus went on.

The cases of Chas. Bailey and Jacob De Hart were continued.

Arnold Lee, a little son of Samuel Lee, of Abote township, was somewhat injured yesterday by the falling of a dead limb from a hickory tree from which he, with other boys, was gathering nuts.

The death of Theophilus Guillaume, of Milan township, mentioned in Saturday's SENTINEL, was the result of injuries sustained by falling from a wagon on Tuesday. The funeral took place yesterday.

Anson McPhail, aged seventeen, an employe of Hattersley's brass foundry, caught his left arm in the machinery Saturday, and it was terribly lacerated, the flesh being cut to the bone for a length of three inches.

Mr. Jeff Cummings may justly pride himself upon the remarkable beauty of his two twin cherubs. They are the wonder and admiration of all who see them, and if we mistake not Jeff's babies are the prettiest out.

Officer Wallace, of York, Pa., arrived at home safely with his prisoner, Shriver, who was arrested at Columbus City, last week, at the instigation of Capt. Smith. The York papers give Capt. Smith a great deal of credit for the arrest.

The storm on Friday night did considerable damage in the west part of the county in the way of blowing down trees, fences, etc. The barn of Wm. Shinn, in Whitley Co., 3 1/2 miles west of Arcola, was struck by lightning and with contents burned. Damage $1,200, or $1,500.

Some of the men employed in Mike Kaylor's brick yard, south of the city, are in the habit of coming to the city on Sundays, drinking lots of fire water, and kicking up a big racket. Yesterday they were burning around South Lafayette street and ought to have been taken in.

A Grand Rapids brakeman, while coupling cars at Kalamazoo, on Saturday, had his foot caught by the flange of a wheel and was thrown under the cars, sustaining a fracture of his leg.

On the Pennsylvania road there are a couple of engines in active service at this moment that have reached the unprecedented record of over 190,000 miles without once needing repairs. These are the standard engines used on the road.

George Sappington's Funeral.

Our readers will recollect the sad accident that happened in St. Joseph township, Saturday morning, whereby George Sappington lost his life. George and his brother William were out hunting, the latter having his rifle on his shoulder with the hammer raised. When about to change the position of the gun it was discharged, the ball penetrating the brain of George. He lingered for a few hours in an insensible condition. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Lowry, of the New Haven Methodist precinct. The remains were deposited in the beautiful cemetery of the Odd Fellows at New Haven. The funeral was the largest ever attended in that portion of the county. George Sappington's age was 24 years, 6 months, and 1 day at the time of his death. He was a young man of more than ordinary ability and intelligence. He was born in this county and was the son of Jacob Sappington, of St. Joe township.

A Dastardly Assault.

Yesterday as Wm. Ford, an ex-constable, was returning home with his little girl, he encountered at the gate leading to his house in Kier's alley, a party of men. He politely asked them to step aside and let him pass. He opened the gate and let his child pass in, and as he was following, one of the party slammed the gate on his heels, saying: "Get in there, you son of a b—h." He looked around to see who it was, when one of the men, a plumber in the employ of Robt. Ogden, struck him and knocked him down. They then left. Ford has filed an affidavit for assault and battery, but at this writing the party has not been found. Ford says he doesn't know what was the cause of the assault as he never met the party before to his knowledge.
